HOW THE FLEET FARED IN FRISCO

Practical Suggestions to Aid the Honolulu Entertainers.

By Ernest N. Smith.
(Special Correspondence of the Advertiser.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 23.—In spite of the fact that officers and men of the fleet are almost exhausted from the social attentions heaped upon them, and look forward with some alarm and apprehension to visits to new ports and another round of the same old social whirl, Honolulu's fame as a place for entertainment has already spread throughout the fleet, and as the islands are in a position to profit by the experiences and mistakes of Coast towns, there is no reason why the visit of the Atlantic fleet to Hawaii should not linger as long in the minds of the officers and men as it did in the memories of the men who visited the islands with Admiral Evans' Asiatic squadron some years ago.

Several of these men of the original fleet are on the vessels here now, and their unvarying answer to enthusiastic descriptions of Coast celebrations is "Wait until we get to Honolulu."

Some of these men I have met and talked with and they in common with many others, when asked what kind of a celebration they would like at Honolulu, have answered, "A characteristic Hawaiian entertainment."

If Honolulu would welcome the fleet in the best possible manner, it seems wise to follow closely along Hawaiian lines. Balls and dances are inevitable, official receptions are a matter of course, but all too seldom do the officers and men have an opportunity to get into the country, away from the sea. True, it would be hard to get them away from the sea on Oahu, but here, any excursion or entertainment which took the men to the hills or the country was eagerly taken by the larger number of those invited, and anything which was slightly different from the accustomed routine of entertainment was enthusiastically received by the officers and men.

Thus it was that the act of a Santa Cruz society woman who gathered together several hundred button-hole bouquets and presented them to the men as they came ashore will be remembered.

DR. KOCH VISITS THE SETTLEMENT AT KALAUPAPA

The Most Eminent Bacteriologist in the World
Goes to the Most Unique Leper Colony in the World.

Dr. Koch, the eminent bacteriologist, went to the Leper Settlement after all.

In his interview with an Advertiser representative soon after he came here he said that he did not intend to go; that he had been to practically all the leper settlements in the world, and that there was no reason why he should go to the one on Molokai.

But during his stay here he has become interested in the administrative features of the Settlement, which are unique among such institutions, and he accepted an invitation to make a visit to the Settlement.

The Board of Health extended an invitation to him to go as its guest, the board feeling that it could not fail

FEAR AT THE BIG CAPITAL

Saw Andrew Carnegie and Talked With Him About Library.

(Mail Special to the Advertiser.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 18.—Gov. Frear is leaving this evening for the Lake Mohonk Conference, having concluded his labors in Washington for the time being. He has been very busy on a number of matters, pertaining to the administration and welfare of the Territory. Hon. W. O. Smith, who came to Washington, is leaving for the West and for Honolulu this evening. He returned yesterday from a business trip to New York.

The Governor has talked with Andrew Carnegie to ascertain whether the ironmaster would be disposed to present a library building to the city of Honolulu. He found Mr. Carnegie well disposed toward the idea, but Mr. Carnegie sails for Europe and the impression is that the matter will not come to a head for the present.

Today the Governor has been visiting the Interior and other departments to advise with officials about territorial affairs. He planned before the day was over to go to the Navy Department with Mr. George B. McClellan and others to talk with the chief of the bureau of supplies about the purchase by the navy of quantities of Hawaiian beef for the fleet, soon to be in mid-Pacific waters.

Yesterday Judge and Mrs. F. M. Hatch entertained the Governor, the Hawaiian delegate, and Mr. McClellan and the ladies of their families at dinner.

The Senate and House have passed a bill to facilitate winding up the affairs of the Hawaiian postal savings bank. The bill will now be signed by the President and become law. It simply confers upon the Governor of the Territory authority to comply with demands for moneys still deposited in the postal savings banks, in cases of the death of a depositor, who has no executor or administrator.

Honolulu, with its $250,000 cash appropriation for a public building and an authorization for a building to cost $850,000 had the largest item in the public building bill which is about to become law. The item is full of significance regarding the esteem in which the Territory is held by Congress and also regarding the efforts of the Hawaiians in Washington in persuading Congress to vote money for the Territory.

The appropriation for a new lighthouse on Kauai is now assured, as the omnibus lighthouse bill, containing that item, has gone to the President and will soon be signed.

There is some danger that the Japanese immigration situation will be (Continued on Page Nine.)

PEACE.

Honor and revere the soldiers
In whatever land they are,
Both the Army and the Navy,
And the noble G. A. R.

As the people pay their tribute
In a wealth of greens and flowers,
To our country's treasured heroes,
Let most grateful hearts be ours

That the fearful din of battle
Long ago did wane and cease,
And that over our great Nation
Hovers now the angel, Peace.

LICENSE BOARD AT WORK FOR THE NEW LICENSE YEAR

Seventeen Liquor Licenses Have Been Renewed and Several Others are Deferred for Further Consideration.

The Board of License Commissioners yesterday afternoon held a meeting at which public hearings were given to about thirty-one applicants for a renewal of license and one new application for license. The public hearing proved to be a rather perfunctory matter. Besides the commissioners there was no one present except applicants and their attorneys, and an Advertiser reporter. There was only one protest filed. That was against the renewal of the license to the Orpheum Saloon. It was signed by Rev. E. W. Thwing, pastor of the Fort street Chinese church; Mr. Merrill, the superintendent of the Sunday school; Frank Damon, P. C. Jones, W. W. Hall, Mrs. Richards, president of the Free Kindergarten and Children's Aid Society, and several others.

The objections to the renewal of the license were that the saloon was within 120 feet of the premises of the Chinese church, where Sunday school was held on Sunday and kindergartens and other schools on weekdays; hundreds of children passed the place daily going to and from the Fort street church and the High School; there were frequent children's matinees at the Orpheum Theater and moving-picture shows attended by children. Charles Lambert in reply filed a map and survey showing that his place was 155 feet from the entrance of the church, the point from which measurements are to be taken as the law directs. He stated in addition that he had run the place fully within the law.

For the rest the public hearing consisted of calling the names of the applicants for renewal, giving them an opportunity to be heard if they had anything to say, and of asking if there were any objections to the granting of the renewal. There were no objections in any case except in the protest against the Orpheum Saloon.

None of the applicants felt called on to say anything in their behalf except Harry Klemme, who was represented by A. M. Brown, who said that Klemme had run his place according to law. Brown also represented Hong Fat Co., who applied for a wholesale license. It is a new firm composed of one member of the firm of Wing Chong Lung and the son of another. Wing Chong Lung already have a retail license, but this is to be a new concern and do a wholesale business. The commissioners refused to grant the license.

After the public hearing the board went into executive session.

The following licenses were renewed: Hoffschlaeger & Co., wholesale; T. F. McTigue & Co., S. I. Shaw & Co., Pantheon Saloon, Thomas Ryan, Isaac L. Cockett, Charles Lambert, Orpheum Saloon; E. L. Berndt, Fashion Saloon, Lishman & Day, E. S. Cunha, Wing Wo Tai, wholesale; Nakashima & Nagatani, Aala Saloon; James E. Thompson, Kentucky Saloon; H. Hackfeld & Co., wholesale; T. Sumeda, wholesale; S. Kamura & Co., wholesale.

The following applications were deferred: Hoffman Saloon, William B. Barthol, Kanehameha Saloon, Rosa, W. C. Peacock & Co., Harry Klemme, Headlight Saloon, Sunrise Saloon, Iwilei Saloon, Takasaki, Kihana Saloon, George Lycurgus.

SOCIETIES FOR HILO.

The Attorney General has approved, as to form, the applications for a charter for Court Mauna Kea No. 857 Ancient Order of Foresters, and for St. Francis Council Young Men's Institute, both of Hilo. The Treasurer has approved in each instance.

THE BATES BILL WAS THE ONE PASSED AFTER ALL

The following letter from the author of the Pearl Harbor bill should settle the question of its paternity:

Washington, D. C., May 16, 1908. Merchants' Association, Honolulu.
Dear Sirs: Please accept my thanks for the very kind telegram of congratulations over the passage of my bill for the development of Pearl Harbor. It is very pleasing to know that the amount available this year has been increased to $1,000,000, and that the total expenditure will be from $3,000,000 to $4,000,000.

My personal inspection of Pearl Harbor a year ago impressed me with its importance. It was therefore a pleasure to report the matter from the Subcommittee on Navy Yards, of which I happened to be the chairman, and also to urge the matter through the House.

The very high standing of your Delegate helped much in the matter. Mr. McClellan has been instant in season and out of season from the very first and has worked incessantly and industriously for the passage of this bill. In fact, I received from him many suggestions which were invaluable.

He is one of the most efficient and industrious men in Washington and I can not speak of his work and fidelity in too high terms; in short, I desire to share fully with him any credit that may be due for the success of the Pearl Harbor bill.

It would be a great pleasure to visit Honolulu again this year and renew the pleasant acquaintances of a year ago.

Please present my compliments to the members of your association and give them my kindest greetings. Very truly yours,

ARTHUR L. BATES.
